Honorable Thomas S. Foley
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Enclosed please find the first Within-Session OMB Sequester Report to the President and Congress for Fiscal Year 1991. It has been prepared in accordance with the new budget process reforms and the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended (the Act).

The report finds that a "mini-sequester" is necessary for programs in the domestic discretionary category. Accordingly, a Presidential sequester order has been prepared for issuance today. This is the second such "mini-sequester" under the new, strengthened budget enforcement procedures. The excess spending that necessitates the "mini-sequester" was contained in H.R. 1281, the Dire Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1991 (P.L. 102–27). The new enforcement system requires an immediate sequester, unless the spending excess is otherwise corrected by legislative action.

Budget authority enacted in H.R. 1281 exceeds the spending limit for domestic discretionary programs by $2.4 million; therefore, a sequester of .0013 percent is required for all budgetary resources in non-exempt accounts in the domestic discretionary category. Outlays associated with sequestered budgetary resources are estimated to be $1.4 million.

This within-session 1991 sequester report estimates that spending for the international affairs and defense categories is within the discretionary adjusted spending limits specified in the Act.

Respectfully yours,

Richard Darman

SEQUESTER ORDER

By the authority vested in me as President by the statutes of the United States of America, including section 254 of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (Public Law 99-177), as amended by the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Reaffirmation Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-119), and Title XIII of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-508) (hereafter referred to as "the Act"), I hereby order that the following actions be taken immediately to implement the sequestrations and reductions determined by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget as set forth in his report dated April 25, 1991, under sections 251 and 254 of the Act:

(1) Budgetary resources for each nonexempt account within the domestic category of discretionary spending shall be reduced as specified by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget in his report of April 25, 1991.

(2) Pursuant to sections 250(c)(6) and 251, budgetary resources subject to sequester shall be new budget authority; new loan guarantee commitments or limitations; new direct loan obligations, commitments, or limitations; and obligation limitations.

(3) For accounts making commitments for guaranteed loans, as authorized by substantive law, the head of each department or agency is directed to reduce the level of such commitments or obligations to the extent necessary to conform to the limitations established by the Act and specified by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget in his report of April 25, 1991.

All sequestrations shall be made in strict accordance with the specifications of the report of April 25, 1991, of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget and the requirements of sections 251 and 254.

April 25, 1991.

I. INTRODUCTION

The Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended (the Act), requires the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to issue a within-session sequester report 15 days after the enactment of an appropriation for a fiscal year in progress if that appropriation results in a breach of the statutory spending limit. This report fulfills that requirement. It sets forth estimates for domestic discretionary spending, the baseline level of sequestrable budgetary resources and outlays, the amount of budgetary resources to be sequestered, and the resulting outlay reductions. The following table provides the status of enacted appropriations for defense, international affairs, and domestic discretionary accounts for 1991.

[1] The Defense limits exclude $1 billion in budget authority and $1.165 billion in outlays that had been appropriated earlier for Operation Desert Shield.

[2] The amounts previously enacted for International affairs reflect the sequester of $389 million in budget authority and $191 million in outlays.

II. SEQUESTER CALCULATIONS

The statutory spending limit for 1991 domestic discretionary budgetary resources is $182,891.0 million. The total amount of enacted 1991 budget authority provided for the domestic discretionary category is $182,893.4 million. Domestic discretionary budget authority breaches the spending limits by $2.4 million.

A sequester of .0013 percent is required to eliminate this breach. This sequester will reduce outlays by $1.4 million. The Appendix provides, for each agency, account, and type of budgetary resource, the OMB estimate of the baseline level of sequestrable budgetary resources and associated outlays, the amount of budgetary resources to be sequestered, and the resulting outlay reductions.

The Act requires an explanation of differences between OMB and CBO in the amount of sequestrable budgetary resources of any budget account to be reduced if such difference is greater than $5 million. At the time this report was prepared, CBO had not revised its baseline estimates to incorporate the effects of enacted supplemental appropriations. Therefore, it was not possible to provide the required comparisons.
